

www.Newzblogz.com: Your news and information destination for constantly updated breaking topic based headlines with no popups or logins.

Regis News Blog

April 3, 2007

Headline: Post, hotel to team up for condos

Atlanta-based Post Properties is teaming up with luxury hotelier the Four Seasons and renowned architect Michael Graves for a posh high-rise condominium development in downtown Austin, Texas.

Construction is expected to begin this spring on a 166-unit condo in a landmark building next to the existing 30-story Four Seasons Hotel Austin. When complete, the units will sell for prices between $400,000 and $2 million, offering residents all the hotel's amenities.

Units will range from 1,000 square feet to 2,700 square feet, with combinations up to 5,500 square feet.

Newsflusie Blog

April 3, 2007

Headline: Post Properties in deal with Four Seasons

Atlanta-based Post Properties is teaming with luxury hotelier The Four Seasons and architect Michael Graves to develop a posh high-rise condominium development in downtown Austin, Texas. Construction is expected to begin this spring on a 166-unit condo in a landmark building next to the Four Seasons Hotel Austin. Units will sell for between $400,000 and $2 million, and residents will be offered ...